Online Inter School Cultural Fest- Goonj-2020

Delhi Public School, Sec-45, Gurgaon, organized the first of its kind Online Inter School Cultural Fest- Goonj-2020, from 8th May to 5th June, 20. The theme of the fest was Parichay…Pehchaan khudh se, keeping in mind the preventive measures regarding COVID-19. Encouraging a blended learning model, the Fest provided a platform to the young creative minds with artistic challenges to empower them to think beyond boundaries.

The topics for various categories related to visual art, performing art and movie making, encouraged the participants to think out of the box while maintaining social isolation.

The global fest witnessed participation from twenty- two Indian schools belonging to Delhi NCR and three International Student Cultural Exchange partner schools from Germany, France and Poland.

Literati from the respective fields of the craft judged the online entries. The response for the Fest was heartening as the entries received from the young competitors left an indelible impression on everyone associated with it.

The Letter of Honour was awarded to Lotus Valley International School, Sector- 50, Gurgaon for their remarkable feat in various events of the competition.

Goonj 2020, became a medium for the young learners to introspect, innovate and implement new ideas in harmony with the existing environment.
