A workshop on 'Skilling and Knowhow Initiative for Lifelong Leadership Development (SKILLD)' was organised by The Global Education and Leadership Foundation, tGELF on 10th July 2018. It was conducted by Ms. Dinu Raheja at Delhi Public School, Gurgaon for the teachers of Class XII.

Following teachers attended the workshop:

Ms. Survi Sinha	Class Teacher XI I A
Ms. Leeza Dutta	Class Teacher XII B
Ms Leela Grewal	Class Teacher XII C
Ms. Manjulata Dwivedi	Class Teacher XII D
Ms. Jaya Raswant	Class Teacher XII E
Ms. Ritu Jain	Class Teacher XII G
Ms. Sunita Kandpal	Class Teacher XII H
Ms. Pooja Batra	Class Teacher XII I
Ms Rashu Bhalla	Class Teacher XII J
Ms Rekha Yadav	Class Teacher XII K

Teachers from various schools of Gurgaon also attended the workshop.

It was an interactive session where the resource person elaborated on the finer aspects of leadership mainly how the acronym L.E.A.D (Leadership, Ethics, Altruism and Decisive action) should be incorporated in all kinds of leadership roles.

Various fun filled activities like 'Tree of Life' and answering the question 'Who am i?' were conducted which led to unique bonds between participants creating engaging classrooms.

The workshop familiarised the teachers with the life skills to be dealt with in class. The experiential programme has a unique value-based curriculum, which helps create a global mind-set amongst its participants.

The objective of the workshop was to help the teachers cultivate life skills and leadership amongst the students.
