Delhi Public School, Gurugram Celebrates Happy Feet, the Graduation Ceremony

Delhi Public School, Gurugram celebrated Happy Feet, the Graduation Ceremony of Class V with Vineeta Jerath, co-founder and Editor of The Suburb magazine, as the chief guest. Director Principal, Aditi Misra, emphasized responsible technology use, urging students to limit screen time and parents to lead by example. She highlighted punctuality as a shared responsibility and encouraged daily reading to enhance creativity and critical thinking. The cultural extravaganza featured a vibrant Rajasthani folk dance by the students of Shiksha Kendra, an afternoon school run by DPS Gurugram for the marginalised section of society, followed by energetic performances of Garba, Bhangra, and Bihu. Enthralling Taekwondo and Zumba demonstrations added to the excitement. A grand parade symbolised both an ending and a fresh beginning. Jerath applauded the students' creativity and encouraged them to embrace challenges. Headmistress, Kanu Chopra expressed gratitude, while Middle School Headmistress, Shaifali Bhatt provided insights into the transition ahead. The celebration left a lasting impact on the young graduates.
