

DELHI PUBLIC SCHOOL, GURGAON
ANVESHAN 2018: Report

The students of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon participated in ANVESHAN 2018, a heritage based music event. It was organised by ITIHAAS on 29th and 30th August 2018 at the LTG Auditorium on the topic Inclusion.

The students of classes VI and XI participated in the categories: Jumbish and Udgaar. After qualifying in the zonal rounds, both the teams went on to win the awards in the finals:

Jumbish category: second prize for best music.

Udgaar: All India winners winning “Song of the year”

The event saw the presence of esteemed guests: Meenakshi Lekhi, Member of the Parliament, Dr. Budha Rashmi Mani, Director General National Museum and Major D.P. Singh, Kargil hero and India’s first blade runner. All the guests shared their experiences with the students. They appreciated the performances of all the teams who were shortlisted after an exhaustive research-based zonal round held on 1st August 2018 in which schools participated from all over India.

The event saw the topic ‘Inclusion’ being represented in its most beautiful and lyrical form by our students who had researched about various aspects of inclusion encompassing gender, colour, religion etc. It was a vibrant, colourful and an extensive learning experience for all in which our students mesmerised the audience and were applauded by the judges and audience alike.
