

Workshop Report

Goethe Institut, Max Mueller Bhavan offered a two weeks scholarship basis training programme from 15th to 27th July 2019, at Goethe-Institute Bremen in Germany, to Ms. Pooja Parwanda, HOD German and Spanish language.

The training programme brought together 25 German language teachers from 21 countries across the Globe. The main objective of the seminar was to promote intercultural awareness amongst German Language teachers, to enhance language teaching and communication. The participants shared innovative teaching methodologies with each other which will assist them in effective teaching while understanding cultural differences among students. It was emphasised that German language does not only pursue linguistic and communicative goals, but also aims at educating students about Germany.

The seminar also introduced new teaching aids and class room based exercises for better learning and understanding of German language. Overall it was informative and enriching seminar.
