

Educational Tour to Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi 19th September to 21st September 2019

Delhi Public School, Gurgaon organized a three-day study tour to Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi. 40 students from classes IX, X and XI accompanied by four teachers, attended this workshop.

The students also visited Sarnath Museum. It houses the findings and excavations from the archaeological site of Sarnath. The students got an opportunity to see the famous original sandstone sculpted Lion capital of Sarnath (National Emblem of Republic India). It preserves a rich collection of art, sculpture, ethnography and ethnology.

The students visited Banaras Hindu University, Varanasi. The vast, green and peaceful campus away from the chaos of Varanasi city was a pleasure to stay in. Even more attractive was the Faculty of Visual Arts, with sculptures and installations all around. The department aims to prepare the students for creative and applied responsibilities, in the world of art and design.

The students learnt a lot of art forms at the campus. The pleasant ambience was one of openness freedom and a mix of spirituality, culture and heritage. It offered students endless inspiration and material for their creations. The training programme was oriented towards one's individual ability and expression through one-to-one training, exhibitions and field trips, to provide necessary exposure.

The workshop encouraged the budding artists to push the boundaries of their creations. It was an enriching, informative and educational trip. The art enthusiasts were spell-bound by this magnificent art workshop which enabled them to learn the nuances of Art.

The group at the Visual Art Department, BHU

Students engrossed in creative work