

Celebrating 'Walking Trees'

With her imaginative and adorable doodle, Divyanshi Singhal, Class II, was declared the national winner of the Google Doodle competition 2019. The doodle threads the hope of saving trees for a better future.

Divyanshi is the national winner for doodle 4 google 2019. Her artwork is displayed on google home page for today on children's day. we thank you for your blessings and love. Your help has been invaluable to us, and we don't know how she would have reached here without your love and support. Again would like to thank God n everyone around us for her success.

