

FLAG MAKING AND SLOGAN WRITING ACTIVITY

"Where the mind is without fear and the head is held high, into that heaven of freedom, my Father, let my country awake." - Rabindranath Tagore

Celebrating the spirit of patriotism and nationalism. Class XI AND XII TSK members organised patriotism-filled activities for students of Classes 1 to 5 at Shiksha Kendra on 18th July 2025. The event featured flag-making and slogan-writing activities carefully tailored to instil a sense of pride and patriotism in the young minds as part of the RWYC initiative.

The event featured two main activities: flag-making and slogan-writing, both of which were carefully tailored to engage and inspire the students. The students participated with great fervor, showcasing their creativity and talent while expressing their love for the nation.

The event which witnessed an overwhelming participation of Shiksha Kendra students, was a remarkable success, effectively resonating with themes of nationalism, unity, and pride, and reinforcing the values of patriotism among the students. The enthusiasm and creativity displayed during the flag-making and slogan-writing activities underscored the event's success, making it a memorable experience for all involved. This event highlighted the importance of nurturing patriotism and national pride among young students, contributing positively to their development and understanding of national values

