

PROJECT RAISE Action for Equality

Starting with the boys!

Making them the possible stakeholders in the process of change towards gender equity.

A training program organised by the school in collaboration with Equal Community Foundation and UNESCO, for the boys of class 11.

The training program aimed at sensitising boys about gender equality and equity by making them possible stakeholders in the process to overcome challenges of gender disparity.

