

REPORT – YOUNG CHEF CONTEST

Delhi Public School, Sector 45, Gurgaon organised the 'Young Chef Contest' for the students of Middle School in June 2020. The online event witnessed participation of enthusiastic young chefs. The young minds put their heart and soul into preparing delectable dishes for the competition and exhibited their exemplary culinary skills.

The participants submitted short video clips, showcasing their laudable latent talent. While everyone excelled at this, some surpassed the others by adding extra magic to their dishes. Aadit Gupta of class VI F secured the first position in the category – 'Cooking without fire' by preparing a savory mid-day snack. Kaavya Arora of class VII L won the first position in the category- 'Dessert makes everything better'. Manya Nanda of class VIII J was awarded the first position in the category – 'Eat healthy, stay healthy'.

The Parent Reps and DPS alumni, who judged the online event, were impressed by the culinary expertise of the little master chefs.

