

UTOPIA MODEL UNITED NATIONS 2025

"You are never too young to lead and you should never doubt your capacity to triumph where others have not." - Kofi Annan

On the 1st and 2nd of August 2025, in a world where diplomacy shapes destinies, the corridors of Delhi Public School, Gurgaon transformed into a global stage for the 17th edition of Utopia Model United Nations, echoing with the voices of tomorrow's leaders. The two-day Conference began with unyielding passion. More than 300 delegates participated from grades VIII to XII.

Ms. Sapna Dhawan, Dean Student Welfare declared the Conference officially open. She welcomed the alumni as members of the Executive Board and encouraged the delegates to think beyond themselves. She reiterated the importance of listening attentively, expressing views with clarity and consideration and in being empathetic in all our interactions.

This exhilarating Conference consisted of six committees- UNGA, UNHRC, UNSC, HCC, UNEP and AIPPM that were earmarked by intense debates, dynamic crisis updates, meaningful discussions, and constructive disagreements on certain intriguing agendas of collective concerns, requiring immediate resolution and coordinated action at the global level. The delegates honed their key skills in diplomacy, leadership, problem-solving, and persuasive communication.

What truly set UMUN 2025 apart was the spirit of alacrity and seamless coordination that shined through every aspect of the event. The Conference was conceptualized, organized, and carried out by students of grade XI and XII, under the guidance of their dedicated teachers. From careful logistics and well-written documentation to thorough delegate training and warmth of hospitality, each detail witnessed months of sheer hard work. Success of the Conference was further facilitated by the unwavering commitment of the school faculty, administrative staff, and leadership, whose encouragement and trust gave the student body the opportunity to initiate and grow.

Following the presentation of awards by Ms. Sapna Dhawan, Dean Student Welfare declared the two days conference officially closed on 5th August 2025.
